

Red Wing Public School

We believe

All students can succeed. Our teachers and staff work to support all student's individual collective needs, by fostering an inclusive environment where literacy, math and experiential play based learning is accomplished collaborative and evergreen fashion meeting the needs of our students along our paths together.

What our staff learning looks like

Red Wing Public School staff are fortunate to have weekly coaching and PLC meetings led by an embedded Literacy Coach to discuss how we can help our students achieve their best. Our focus is learning how to teach literacy in a holistic model centered on Phonetic development.

What does excellence look like

At Red Wing Public School
WE WILL work to help all students achieve their potential.
